

Allen R. Saylor

Allen R. Saylor is the Senior Director for Food Consulting Services at EAS Consulting Group LLC., headquarter in the Alexandria, Virginia (across the Potomac from Washington, DC). His food-based career spans thirty-seven (37) years, sixteen (16) years as a state, FDA and USDA food regulator, with the last twenty-one (21) years as a food processing industry regulatory advisor, specializing in evaluation, assessments and the trouble shooting of food plant processing operations and their food safety and quality programs, with both ISO 22000 and BRC auditor certifications. He is an FDA-recognized “Lead Instructor” for the US FDA FSMA regulations on Preventive Controls for Human Foods (PCHF) and the Foreign Supplier Verification Program (FSVP) and is familiar with the SQF, BRC, IFS and FSSC22000 private certification systems. He has active in the International Dairy Federation, leading the Standing Committee (SC) on Food Additives for 8 years. Mr. Saylor has attended the Codex Committees on Food Hygiene, Food Labeling, Food Additives, Food Contaminants, and Milk & Milk Products since 1997. He received Group Excellence Awards from both the U.S. FDA and U.S. Department of Agriculture. In 2009, Mr. Saylor received the Harold Barnum Industry Award from the International Association of Food Protection (IAFP). He is active in the International Association of Food Protection (IAFP), the Institute of Food Technologist (IFT), the International Dairy Federation (IDF), the American Society of Quality (ASQ) and served on the Board of Directors of 3-A Sanitary Standards, Inc. from 2000 – 2010 and the Dairy Practices Council (DPC) from 2013 to 2016.

EAS Consulting Group

Senior Director of Food Consulting Services