

Demetrios Kafchitsas

Demetrios Kafchitsas works with senior teams of executives and service professionals to capitalize on new markets and ventures, establish strategic alliances, and offer consulting, management, real estate and financial services to individuals and businesses in the Hospitality and Food Industry. Specializes in Pre- opening and Post- opening operations, guidelines and streamlining for Hotels, Restaurants, Airline and Shipping F&B, and similar Venues. He is the SVP of the Board of Directors and CEO of Jet Set Communications, Inc. a hospitality consulting firm. He serves as Chairman and Director of Business Development of Pan Gregorian of America and President and CEO of Pan Gregorian Enterprises of Metro NY. The companies together with their affiliates, allied entities, and subsidiaries provide leverage purchasing and benefits to over 20,000 hospitality units in the US, including regional hospitality groups, cruise and cargo ships, universities, and hospitals. He is a Board member of the New York State Restaurant Association, Greater NYC Chapter. He is the Vice Chairman of the The Pan Gregorian Fund, a charitable organization providing scholarships to hospitality and educational institutions, grants, and funding to the arts and the community. Dimitri holds an MPS in Hospitality, Tourism and Travel from the New School University Milano School of Management and a BBA from Pace University Lubin School of Business.

President & CEO, Pan Gregorian Enterprises
Sr. Vice President & CEO, Jet Set Communications