

Dimitris Christou

Dimitris Christou, is coming from the market, with high involvement in commercial activities, both private and as a manager in sales, over the last 25 years. Born in Athens in 1966, is a graduate of the Faculty of Mechanical Engineering of TEI Patras. From 01.05.2015 until today holds the position of Director in Market Development department at the Organisation GS1 Association Greece. He speaks English and German and is married with three children.

GS1 Association Greece
Director, Market Development